

HONOLULU

Star-Bulletin

MONDAY MORNING
3/16/09 • SINCE 1882 • 50¢

[ PHOTO FINISH

By Cindy Ellen Russell ]

About 160 students from Japan's Sonoda Gakuen High School energetically performed on Kalakaua Avenue yesterday during the 15th Annual Honolulu Festival parade through Waikiki. The festival's three-day celebration culminated with the grand parade, which featured performances from different regions of the Pacific Rim.

A performer from Miyagi University Kosuzume danced along Kalakaua Avenue, left; the Hempfield Area High School marching band from Greensburg, Pa., was one of 72 groups that participated in the parade, above; and the group Gee Yung performed a dragon dance, right.