FREE BENEFIT CONCERT BY JAKE SHIMABUKURO ON MARCH 9
PRESENTED BY 20TH ANNUAL HONOLULU FESTIVAL

- WHAT: Free Concert Starring Ukulele Master Jake Shimabukuro to Benefit Children Who Were Victims of 2011 East Japan Earthquake
- WHEN: Sunday, March 9, 3:00 – 4:00 p.m.
- WHERE: Waikiki Beach Walk, Plaza Lawn on Lewers Street
- BONUS: Immediately after the concert, attendees can also enjoy the Waikiki Grand Parade on Kalakaua Avenue, followed by the spectacular Nagaoka Fireworks Show over Waikiki Beach.

DETAILS: The Honolulu Festival, in partnership with the Hawaii Senior Life Enrichment Association, is proud to present: The Honolulu Festival's 20TH Anniversary Concert Featuring Jake Shimabukuro.

Jake will be joined by Jody Kamisato and the Ukulele Super Kids, Hawaii's up-and-coming ukulele stars that will have the crowd shouting "Hana Hou!" for an encore.

This free concert is being presented in conjunction with Waikiki Beach Walk as a benefit to help children who were victims of the 2011 East Japan Earthquake.

Honolulu Festival will be collecting donations to benefit the RAINBOW FOR JAPAN KIDS, a non-profit organization that creates opportunities for Japanese children directly affected by the East Japan Earthquake to rest and recuperate in Hawaii. Since its inception in July 2011, the program has brought nearly 100 children from Japan to Hawaii.

ABOUT THE HONOLULU FESTIVAL

The Honolulu Festival is celebrating its 20th year in 2014 with a weekend of free arts and cultural displays and entertainment performances for all to enjoy, March 7-9. Under the banner of "Pacific Harmony" and the theme, "Jubilation, One Heart, One Pacific, One World" the Honolulu Festival's goal is to help perpetuate the strong cultural and ethnic ties between the people of Asia-Pacific and Hawaii.
